

I listen to KLOVE daily at work and while I am traveling in my car. It's nice to have a station that is uplifting and christian based. I know by removing the station from the community would be devastating. I have many friends and family members whom are listeners as well. I feel comfortable when listening that it is family friendly and I don't have to worry who is exposed to my music preferences. Please keep KLOVE on. Thanks, Lisa Coleman